Rule published under GOM No 6976 dt 30 1900 & 87 11 1902 in respect of certain powers & duties in connection with the Water works.

By-laws passed by Govt in Regn No 2796 & 27-7-1894 corresponded to the mandi Rule, but there are fallen.

5 The difference in the mode of assessments & exemptions, are are given below

In the Bangalore & Mysore Cities the Vala tax is levied at 3% on the rental value of buildings and at 3/5 of the Assessment rate on lands.

In Bhimandakad the rate of the tax is 2½ Rs % on the letting or rental value in respect of all buildings and lands and all parts thereof within Municipal limits used (note) x Please see the schedule of rates of water tax - the rate for shops &c used for trading or official purposes is half the rate for houses, stables &c used for habitation of men or animals. Vacant sites not used for any purpose do not seem liable to pay any [illegible] water rate.

Under the Bazar Rules Regulation exemptions have to be dealt with under Secs 59 (viii) 60, 73 and 76 thereof.

Rule 4 deals with the question of exemptions from the tax

6 It may be noted here for information that under Sec 60 of the old Rules Regulation of 1871 "house, building or land" the Annual letting Value whereof was less than Rs 10/- was exempt from from Municl taxes if it was the sole rateable property of the owner. In both the city Municipalities religious and charitable institutions are exempt from taxes. This under the Regns of 1871 it was obligatory on the Municl Councils to have fixed the stand pipes at such intervals as might have been prescribed by the Govt and unless this was done the water supply could not have been complete and the water tax could not be imposed in the locality in which the water supply was not complete. (Secs 197, 198 & 199) In the Bangalore city shops having no house connection are exempt from water tax, but action is being taken to remove the exemption
